(Re) Opening Night: January 17, 2008

Written by David on January, 17 2008

Tonight the Strand Theatre re-opened as a performing arts center. This theatre is located in Shelbyville, Indiana, and was transformed from a triple screen movie house. Tonight's opening is a tribute to the hundreds of people who volunteered their time to help make this a reality.

The Strand is owned and operated by Strand Theatre of Shelbyville, Inc. This not-for-profit was formed in October 2006 with the mission to preserve, renovate and operate the Strand Theatre. Below are the three principles and executive committee members of the organization. From left to right are: Steven R. Frazee, David M. Finkel and Chris Nolley. The smiles are those of relief knowing the theatre opened on time.
