Sub Mission Rocks the Strand!

Written by David on September, 13 2008

On Saturday September 13, 2008 SMASHED PRODUCTIONS once again produced a great show at the Strand. The evening started with the very talented Crabtree's Trunk:

The played a one hour set in our dimly lit theatre. After a short interval, the headliner Sub Mission took the stage.

They started out with Eight Days A Week and it got better from there. The band was tight and well prepared. They sounded great in the Strand. Many audience members brought their children. It was nice to see the young, and sometimes very young, crowd enjoying the music. A big Strand Thank You to all the musicians who made this concert possible. We look forward to hosting them again in the future
