Strand Theatre Weekly Email: January 12, 2009

Written by David on January, 11 2009

Hello 2009! The Strand finished with a flurry of events in December. So many, that our trusty band of volunteers needed a few weeks off over the Holidays. That is done, and we are back.

197 of you experienced "Rockphoria" on December 27th. It was over the top. Joey G. outdid himself for this final gig. There were 9 different singers and a great backup band. We heard hits from the 60's, 70's & 80's. It was fun.

We didn't have any events scheduled for January so we could do some heavy maintenance. Every time we tried to paint something, or fix a little plaster, we had another performance on the horizon. Job after job got delayed. So in this very cold month, we have opted to keep the heat down low, and get lots of little things done. Many volunteers have been in working away at our punch list. If you want to help, give Steve F. a shout. You can reply to this email, and he will get it. We still have lots of things to do.

As we start Act II, we need to pause and thank everyone that made 2008 a success. Because of you we have been able to come this far. In 2008 we had 59 performances with a total attendance 7646. Give yourself a hand!

Our 2009 season is starting to fill nicely. You can check our web site for all the latest information.

Again, thank you patronage and encouragement.
