This is going to be fun! Please come and celebrate with us. When you come to the theatre, look up. You will see that we have uncovered the north windows. You will see all freshly rebuilt windows. We still have to paint the exterior, but they still look great.

We are getting ready to celebrate our 2 year anniversary. That is when we first unlocked the door to do work. Because of you, we have come a long way in 2 years. We'll send out more information about our birthday party.

Poetry Reading this coming Wednesday night! It is free. We are being joined by some special guests. We will send a notice at the beginning of the week about that too.

See you this weekend! Thanks for the support and encouragement.
