Circle up for Reading: April 8, 2009

Written by David on April, 6 2009

On Wednesday April 8, 2009 students gathered on the Shelbyville town square, commonly called "The Circle". In 1954 the through traffic was removed and a round-a-bout was installed, so we have a circle in a square!

The City of Shelbyville provided 300 hot dogs for the crowd on a lovely April afternoon. Serenaded by the Shelbyville High School Drumline, the participants walked the one block south the the Historic Strand Theatre. Once inside the children and parents listened to guest readers. First on the bill was Jessie Biggerman of the Shelby County Solid Waste District:

over 130 people attended the event at the Strand. The readers were located on stage, the Cabaret Area and up in the balcony.
