Jim Wynorski ? CANCELLED

Written by David on April, 21 2009

The Strand regrets to announce that noted filmmaker Jim Wynorski who was scheduled to appear at the Strand on Saturday May 30, 2009, had to cancel. Mr. Wynorski has a scheduling conflict with a production shooting schedule in Hawaii. We will update our schedule should Mr. Wynorski be able to re-book his appearance at the Strand. Thank you for your understanding.

Jim Wynorski (b. August 14, 1950) is an American screenwriter, director, and producer, who has been making low-budget, B-movies and exploitation movies for over twenty years. Wynorski has directed well over 50 films. Despite this, only Wynorski's earliest films have ever played in theaters: they have almost all been straight-to-video, straight-to-DVD, or straight-to-cable productions. He often works under pseudonyms such as "Jay Andrews," "Arch Stanton," "H.R. Blueberry," and "Noble Henry."
