The Strand Sisters (Kim & Cindy) arranged a varied and well paced event. There were many styles of music and a tremendous gathering of talent.

First on the program was Strand favorites the Blue River Community Choir. Under the direction of Cindy Leahy (the Strand Newsletter Editor), they got the afternoon off to an excellent start:

Next was a very talented singer Adam Hungate:

Members of the Hopes Point Baptist Church choir made a return visit to the Strand for the Gospel Gathering. In addition to this performance, they will be returning the first weekend in December with a Christmas Show:

The first act ended with a spirited sisterly combination:

After a short intermission, the 200+ patrons were treated to a visit from the Greensburg First Baptist Church Gospel Choir. This was their first visit to the Strand. They were an excellent sounding and polished choir:

All proceeds from this event went to benefit the work we are doing at the Strand. Thank you to all the performers and patrons for making the Strand your Sunday home for an afternoon of live entertainment!

Cindy and Kim are hard at work on their next production, the 2009 Strand Christmas Show!!
