Bears of Blue River Queen Contest: August 15, 2009

Written by David on August, 15 2009

The Bears of Blue River Festival Committee held its annual Queen Competition on August 15, 2009 at the Strand Theatre. This is the first time that this competition has been at the Strand.

Below, Master of Ceremonies (and former Shelbyville Mayor) Bob Williams is ready for the evening:

The program started with a video presentation. This was especially entertaining on the Strand's 20' x 30' screen!

The contestants all preformed on the stage as part of the competition. There was an encore performance by the 2008 BBRF Queen Bryanna Justice.

The Cabaret area was full of well wishers after the competition. The Queen Court assembled to greet all the patrons:

The Bears of Blue River Festival Committee has worked hard for several months to provide an outstanding festival. The Queen, crowned tonight, will represent the Festival in activities throughout the month. Congratulations to the winner as well as the Festival Committee:

The Strand looks forward to hosting the event again in August 2010!
