Strand Theatre Weekly Email ? September 24, 2009

Written by David on September, 24 2009

Sometimes we feel like Tolstoy. So much information, so little space...wait, Tolstoy didn't worry about space, but we do. Speaking of things Russian, we have an excellent review of the film Alexander Nevsky on our web site. You might recall this film is in Russian, however it did have English subtitles.

Last weekend all great entertainment. From our youngest performer at age 2 months, to Ma Kettle, it was quite the variety. This week is shaping up to be an interesting affair. Many months ago we were approached about being a host site for the B-Movie Celebration and Tromadance Indiana Film Festival. We said, sure, that will be fun! We think you will agree. The Strand is the site for Tromadance. This festival shows films from directors across the nation. The Strand will be screening 37 different films. ALL TROMADANCE FILMS ARE FREE. The films run in time varying from 2 minutes to 100 minutes. The complete list is on our web site. Come to the Strand and watch a few. It will be fun.

The B-Movie Celebration moves into the Strand for 2 films this weekend. The first is a premier. Halfway to Hell will show at 11:30pm on Friday. The classic Toxic Avenger will show at 11:30pm on Saturday. Both these films will be $6 for admission. Many people from out of town will have all day passes to the B-Movie Celebration which will include these films. Either way, have some late night fun, come to the Strand.

There is something for everyone. The Halloween Night showing of Young Frankenstein, the Strand will host a COSTUME CONTEST. Not only will you compete for a very cool prize, but you will also have your picture on the Strand web site for all the world to see. Check out last year's costumes - they were fun. The family dressed as the Village People were a Strand favorite!

As September comes to a close, we are pleased to announce that the Strand has hosted 103 events in 2009 with attendance of about 5000. Just to give you a flavor of how far we have come, last year at this time we had produced only 38 events! We are serious about our mission. The variety and frequency of entertainment at the Strand are adding just another option to an already rich arts environment. Thank you for your support. See you this weekend!
