Dinner and A Movie:Grease March 12, 2010

Written by Gary on February, 6 2010

Join us for our second Dinner and a Movie event. This time around Grandma's Pancake House will be preparing some great "diner food" for your dining pleasure. Everyone attending is encouraged to come dressed in their 50's attire. Pull out those leather jackets and poodle skirts. Don't forget to "Grease" your hair back. Singing along with all of these great songs during the movie is encouraged.

Our first event sold out quickly. The success of the first event and the many inquiries about this movie have prompted us to add additional table seating. There will be 80 seats available. There are 6 tables of 8 on the Cabaret and 4 more tables of 8 on the stage. Unique seating to say the least. If these seats sell out you can still dine before the movie but it will be in the theatre seats. You are encouraged to buy your tickets early. Get your friends together and plan on coming out for a great evening of fun. If you wish to reserve a table of 8 you need to leave your name with the ticket vendor when you purchase your tickets. All 8 tickets for a table must be purchased at the same time.
