Rock Concert-Nuff Said with Special Guest the Dead VanZandts- March 27th.

Written by Gary on March, 4 2010

Those of you who have enjoyed the outstanding Rockphoria shows at the Strand will want to catch this show, as three members of Nuff Said are regulars in Rockphoria. Glenn and Aimee Yarwood lend their vocals to the Rock and Rock extravaganza while Shelbyville resident Jim "Biskitt" Wisker adds the bass line.

The opening act, The Dead VanZandts, is also full of Rockphoria alum including its creator Joey Gaudin. This show will be a blast so come out and enjoy.

Listen to a sample of what you are in store for.

NUFF SAID is a premier Central Indiana cover band playing the hits from the 70?s through today! Their eclectic mix appeals to all ages. Genres include Rock & Roll, R&B, Blues, Country, and Dance music. They love to perform and love to play great music.

Six distinctive musicians with decades of performance experience come together to make up the 'Nuff Said Band. Their collective musical experiences include Classical, Country Western, Blues, Jazz, Dance Music, and of course, what they're known for -- Rock & Roll! Their years of experience and broad backgrounds give them the ability to play just about any type of music you want to hear (but don't request any Rap - they do have to draw the line somewhere).

Tickets available at Mickey's, Blue River Printing and at the door. They are also available online.
