Strand Theatre Weekly Email: July 30, 2010

Written by David on July, 30 2010

The Shelby County Players are getting ready to move into the Strand for the final preparation for their upcoming play "And Then There Were None."

Performance times are:

Thursday August 5th 7:30pm

Friday August 6th 7:30pm

Saturday August 7th 7:30pm

Sunday August 8th 2:00pm

The SCP are very good at using every aspect of the Strand. They are creative and innovative and push the 94 year old theatre to its limits! This production appears to be no exception. There are several things that the Strand has helped with in transforming the auditorium into what is needed for their show. We aren't going to tell you what was done, but when you come to the theatre to see the production, you will notice!

One of the biggest bonuses for the SCP production is the ice machine. We know what you are thinking, how could the ice machine help the performance on stage, they aren't doing Titanic?. Well (warning, tech talk ahead) our trusty ice machine was responsible for us running new electrical circuits to the concession stand. The popcorn machine and popcorn oil heater were placed on new circuits from our new panel. This relieved many amps of load from the old panel. This allowed our lighting system, run from the old panel, to gain two new instruments. This is a 33% increase in available light from the balcony for the Players. Hence, the ice machine helped them out!

Now it is your turn. Come out and support the Strand and the Shelby County Players. It will be a fun evening of live theatre at the Strand.

OK, how many of you Strand Fans googled John Calvert? Here is another hint for you all... the Walrus was Paul?.. oops, wrong subject. The hint is that the John Calvert you need to find was born in Indiana and is well known in Hollywood. Do some checking, the upcoming announcement will really be something special. Listen to WSVX starting at 1:00pm on Tuesday August 3rd to find the answer. You can listen on-line at www.wsvx.com

August is approaching. We have several events scheduled throughout the month. August is one of those months that has a Friday the 13th. In honor of that date, the Strand will show a movie that night at 8:00pm. Any guesses? You are correct. "Friday the 13th". It will be fun.

Thanks for the support. The Strand is doing what we set out to do. For all of us connected with the Strand, this is a project of endurance. We want to be bringing more variety to our community for decades to come. Because of you, we are able to accomplish this goal. Thank you!
