Shelby County Players 2010-2011 Debut Performance

Written by David on August, 5 2010

The Shelby County Players held the debut performance of the 2010-2011 season at the Strand Theatre on Thursday August 5, 2010.

And Then There Were None was performed by the company under the direction of Tiffany Wilson. The large Thursday night audience was joined by members of the Shelby County arts community for an opening reception.

There are still tickets available for the remaining performances.
