Strand Theatre Weekly Email: August 26, 2010

Written by David on August, 26 2010

Dear Strand Fan,

The Strand takes a step back in time this weekend...1948 to be exact. We are showing movies starring John Calvert. Mr. Calvert will perform and reminisce on the Strand stage on October 16 for a special film festival. In the mean time, we are showing some of his films. The double feature will start at 7:00pm on Friday and Saturday nights. The films will be different each night, so come out and spend an evening in the Strand!

The Strand not only looks back, but we look forward and sometimes up. This weekend is a good time to look up. This past spring the Strand Lecture series hosted a lecture on astronomy from an Indiana perspective. Our lecturer, Jeff Patterson, would want you to know that there will be excellent viewing for the International Space Station this weekend. You can see the ISS fly over at the following times:

Friday 8/27 8:49pm SW to NE

Sat. 8/28 9:18pm NW to NNE

Mon. 8/30 8:38pm NNW to NNE

When he spoke he told us to look up, so now is our chance. The next lecture will be September 14th with Robert Lewis of the Shelby County Health Department. His talk on public health will be informative and entertaining. If you haven't experienced the slide show with Robert, this is something you won't want to miss!

This past week the Strand was toured by some members of our Sister City Delegation from Japan. The students spent a week in Shelby County visiting many sites and forging bonds between our two communities. Thank you to all the members of the International Relations Committee and the City of Shelbyville for making this possible. We appreciate the opportunity to show that the Arts are alive and well in our community.

We live in a world of wonder and amazement. We are dazzled by not only the natural world, but the things we produce. The Strand is honored to help expose our community to some excellent talent right here in Shelby County. Whether you are interested in a lecture, films, stage plays, poetry or a Dinner and a Movie, we hope to see you at the Strand sometime soon. Thank you for the support and encouragement.
