Things around town...

Written by David on September, 11 2010

We know that the Strand has a loyal following from across the country and beyond. We thank you for your attention to the Strand project. Many of you once lived in Shelby County. There are certain things that we feel obligated to pass along.

Yes, it is true. Shelbyville will soon be home to a White Castle. It is being built on State Road 44 East. The Strand volunteers are especially excited about this. After the end of a long night, it will be comforting to know that a few sliders are only a short distance away, no matter what the time of day.
