John Calvert Film Festival with John Calvert

Written by David on October, 2 2010

The Strand Theatre will host the John Calvert Film Festival featuring John Calvert on stage!!

Mr. Calvert will travel to Shelby County to host an evening featuring his Magic, Films and memories of the Hollywood Golden Age. This is a show you won't want to miss!

His childhood passion for magic and illusion grew into a career, and he made more than 20,000 appearances on stage. During World War II his magic show ran for five months in Hollywood. Gary Cooper, Cary Grant, Danny Kaye and Edgar Bergen with Charlie McCarthy were among the big celebrities who helped out in his act. He still tours with his act, assisted by his wife, at the age of 99.

Played "The Falcon" in three pictures, following George Sanders and Tom Conway (Sanders' brother) into the series.

Broke into films making $600 a day as a hand-double for Clark Gable in Honky Tonk (1941). Scenes required Gable's hands to do some clever, tricky maneuvering, which Gable couldn't pull off. 7:00pm
