Quilters- Waldron HS Drama Department

Written by Gary on October, 11 2010

Waldron High School Performing Arts presents the musical QUILTERS.

In the American West, a pioneer woman, Sarah, and six women, who are called her daughters, face frontier life. Rather than a straightforward storyline, the musical is presented as a series of short tales and tableaux matched with musical numbers, each presenting an aspect of frontier life or womanhood. The patches or blocks show "girlhood, marriage, childbirth, spinsterhood, twisters, fire, illness and death" The patches are ultimately put together to form one splendid quilt.

The production at the Strand is the third performance by the WHS troupe. They are also performing the 19th & 20th at Waldron High School.
