New sign

Written by David on February, 15 2011

The Strand lobby now sports a new sign for the concession stand. New isn't exactly the correct word, re-purposed would be better.

Strand volunteer Bob S. took one of the old balcony lighting fixtures and remade it into this sign. When we did the renovation, in keeping with the tradition set by all the previous owners, we didn't throw things way. 4 years later, that light fixture found a home.

Stage Door Graphics provided the graphic for the sign. Next time you are in the theatre take a look!
