Strand Theatre Weekly Email: August 12, 2011

Written by David on August, 11 2011

On August 1st, the Strand hosted the Shelbyville-Shelby County Library's program "The Magic of Science". Another near capacity crowd was on hand to be entertained and amazed by magician Daniel Lusk. It was fun and many of the Strand volunteers are still saying "how did he do that?" Thank you to the Library for bringing this wonderful and educational entertainment to our community. We are hopefully bringing Mr. Lusk back for a Holiday Magic Show....stay tuned!

On August 2nd our AC compressors got a break. We had a whole week without anything scheduled, so we raised the temperature in the auditorium and let our equipment rest. Our volunteers are resting too. July was a whirlwind month, the type we like. That was last week, this week back to fun.

The Shelby County Players held auditions for their upcoming play "Arsenic and Old Lace" on Monday August 8th and Tuesday August 9th. The production is directed by the talented Tiffany Wilson. More information about the play can be found on the Shelby County Players web site at www.shelbycountyplayers.com

On Saturday August 13th the Bears of Blue River Queen Contest will be held at the Strand. This free event will crown the 2011 Queen for the upcoming BBRF. The Festival has lots of great entertainment. The Strand will be dark during the festival. We might have a late night movie or two, but those are still in the planning stage.

We have a special event on Tuesday August 16th. Kaitlynn Scheidler will present a lecture and film on 9/11. Kaitlynn is a high school student and has done extensive research and interviews on the subject. This will be a memorable event. We hope you come hear Kaitlynn speak. The Shelbyville News published a great article about the event, you can read it online at www.shelbynews.com The event is free.

With so much going on, we almost missed something interesting. Our local community had quite a plug by Hollywood. The new Captain America movie opened a few weeks ago. Captain America's side-kick is Bucky. If you look, Bucky was born in Shelbyville, Indiana! The character was created early in the series and we don't know why he is from Shelbyville. This tidbit was submitted by Strand Lecturer Joel F. from California. Tarzan..Bucky?who knows what or who is next? This movie is showing with our friends at Studio 10. Go check it out.

Did you happen to see the article on our web site about our marquee and the Skyline's sign? It is worth the look. We are looking forward to the night when our marquee lights up in its former glory. We hope that time will be soon.

As we approach the start of school, the Strand is looking back on a wonderful summer. We have had a variety of entertainment with the greatest audience support yet. Thank you for helping make it a memorable summer. We look forward to continuing the year with many exciting programs. As always, thank you for the support. We hope to see you at the Strand!
