Strand Theatre Weekly Email: September 9, 2011

Written by David on September, 9 2011

The Strand has had several things happen the past few weeks. There have been auditions for a play, auditions for a movie, a movie shoot and tours. Although we haven't had any events with an audience, we have still been very busy.

On Friday September 16th Operation Comedy will perform at the Strand. This special comedy show will benefit 3 excellent organizations. Operation Comedy supports the Hoosier Veterans Association Foundation. Additionally they will be helping raise funds for our local Santa's Helpers. The final group, as you can guess, is the Strand. This is a triple play, what a great thing! Mike Malone, Jon Stites, Jeff Oskay and Todd McComas will perform an adult theme show starting at 8:00pm. If you want to hear great comedians in the heart of Shelby County, then the Strand is the place to be on September 16th, get ready to laugh.

Rock and Roll music will return to the Strand on Saturday September 17. The Purple Peanut Armada will return to with special guest Mark Hicks. The show will start at 8:00pm. We look forward to a great evening of music. You might notice our marquee says TPPA. We don't have enough letters to spell their 21 letter name, so we had to improvise.

This weekend the Strand is participating at the Shelby County Arts Fest's Tour d'Art. This event is a benefit for the upcoming Shelby County Arts Fest. Tour d'Art will take place on September 10, 2011 at Forest Hill Cemetery from 4pm - 7pm. It will include tours of the cemetery and booths by many of the arts groups in Shelby County. The Strand will be one of those groups. The Shelby County Arts Fest will have a full weekend of arts on October 14, 15 and 16th. There will be many events at the Strand and we are thrilled to participate in this great festival.

The Shelby County Players are preparing their production of Arsenic and Old Lace. It will be at the Strand in 3 short weeks. The Players are working hard in rehearsals and preparing the set. The set, designed by the talented Mike Evans, will be quite extensive. We are working now on figuring out how to load it into the Strand a little early to help them be ready on time. We love seeing scenery on the stage.

Stay tuned, Shelbyville Screams is headed our way at Halloween!
