Strand Theatre Weekly Email: August 2, 2012

Written by David on August, 2 2012

The Strand is filled with song and dance as the Shelby County Players present "Damn Yankees." Performances are Friday and Saturday at 7:30pm and Sunday at 2:00. Advanced tickets are available at Mickey's T-Mart. Get your tickets now for this outstanding musical.

The Shelby County Players were hard at work all week preparing for "Damn Yankees." Director Cindy Leahy and Company put in many hours getting everything in shape. The Strand is used from front to back for this show. The 22 member cast certainly fills all our space!

Our theatre is holding its own during this brutally hot summer. The cooling system at the Strand is working overtime to keep the auditorium cool during our 100 plus degree days. We don't often talk about hard costs, but we did the math and so far it has cost $204 per performance for A/C this summer at the Strand. That is OK, soon we will have to use our heat!

The Strand will join a few other organizations across the country to present a historic even in our history. On Sunday August 5, 2012 the Mars Rover "Curiosity" will land on the red planet. The Strand will be showing the NASA feed live on our screen. This is a free event. We will start at 9:30PM with the anticipated landing at 1:31AM. Wear your Martian Red or any other space gear! Did you know that the rover was named by a sixth grader who attended the Kansas Cosmosphere Space Camp? We have kids from Shelby County who attend there too.

The Strand is busy all next week. We have the Shelby County Players in the theatre Monday and Tuesday for auditions for their next production. On Wednesday and Thursday the Bears of Blue River Festival queen contest will prepare for the Crowning of the Queen on August 11th.

Thank you for your support. The Strand Board of Directors and Volunteers are working hard to keep our performing arts center alive and available for our community. We have a wide variety of events and enjoy them all. We have a great weekend ahead, we'll see you at the Strand!
