Strand Theatre Weekly Email: November 8, 2012

Written by David on November, 8 2012

We have some exciting news. Donnie Baker has SOLD OUT! Thank you to all our loyal patrons who have bought your tickets early. Sometimes we say SOLD OUT and have a few tickets left, this is not the case with this show. We are SOLD OUT and will not have any for sale the night of the performance. While we are sad we cannot accommodate all the requests for tickets, we are happy to have so many attending!

This week we have the Snowflake Princess Contest on Saturday at 1:00pm, it is not Sold Out. As a matter of fact, there are no tickets, it is FREE. Come and support these girls working for a great cause. Matt Mason and Carson Diersing will perform at the Strand on Sunday at 6:00pm. This concert will help benefit the Benesse Oncology Center.

On November 16th the Strand will host a fun event after the Holiday Parade. We will open the theatre for a free CD Release Party hosted by Shelby Idol. "A Shelby Idol Holiday Tradition" is the name of the CD. Several performers will sing on stage. After they are done we will have our first ever Karaoke on our stage. You will enjoy singing at the Strand during this event. Proceeds from the CD generously help the Strand continue our mission of providing a venue for live entertainment in our community. Come and join the party and do a little singing too! Thank you Shelby Idol.

The Holidays are just around the corner. The Strand is getting ready. On November 23, 2012 the Strand will present two FREE showings of the Holiday favorite "ELF". The shows at 12:30pm and 7:00pm are sponsored by First Federal Savings and Loan. We appreciate their support by helping provide this free event to the community.

The Shelby County Players are getting ready to return for Alice In Wonderland. They be loading in following ELF and start their two week run the next weekend. December will continue with lots of holiday music and joy. We will present the 2012 rendition of ROCKPHORIA mid month. This show will be the best yet! The theme this year is the History of Rock & Roll Part 1.

A quick update on some of our things we are working on inside the theatre. Volunteers have been calling to help open the passage between the Strand Annex and the theatre. We could still use more. This will be accomplished during the day lead by Bob Schlick. If you would like to help, let us know.

Next time you call the Strand (317-421-ARTS) you will notice a clear sound on our message. Up to now we have relied on an old answering machine. We have now gone digital and can access our voice mail and change our message WITHOUT being at the theatre. This is a big deal to our volunteers.

We were able to stock up on concession supplies this week. Our friends at Cagney's had to bail us out two times in a row with Diet Coke. We have plenty and were able to return what they lent us. It is nice to have neighbors that always help in a pinch. Thank you Cagney's.

We appreciate your support. We are dark on Saturday night so you can attend "Dancing with the Stars" by our friends at Shelby Senior Services and Shelby County Players.

Thank you and as always, we'll see you at the Strand!
