The Lyric Opera Theatre of Indiana's mission statement states: "Lyric Opera Theatre of Indiana was formed to bring classical music to singers and audiences throughout Indiana and its surrounding area." Not only are they willing to create opportunities for classical music artists, but they also present and support the creation of new works for said classical artists and audiences.

"Lyric Opera Theatre of Indiana presented a engaging program. Audience members of all ages were mesmerized by the caliber and of the performers' skills and the variety of music that they presented. Several small children were in attendance, and were quite enthralled by the presentation. Our library patrons are looking forward to LOTI returning!" - Mary K. Emmerich, Lake Village Memorial Township Library"

This group is able to entertain all audiences of all ages, and to provide classical music for everyone to enjoy. They have twelve very energetic, and talented artists listed on their website that love involvement in musicals. The Lyric Opera Theatre of Indiana has a list of their schedule on their website as well. Take a look at these interesting events and see if there are any you would like to attend.
