Technical Grant Workshop: January 8, 2013

Written by David on January, 6 2013

The Blue River Community Foundation will be holding a Technical Grant Workshop at the Strand Theatre on Tuesday January 8, 2013. The workshop starts a noon.

This is the first of two technical grant workshops for the $100,000 Community Impact Grant.

Lynne Ensminger will lead a workshop for interested organizations with this new grant application on Tuesday, January 8th at noon at the Strand Theatre.

Drinks will be available at no charge, but you will need to bring your own lunch.

Please take a moment to least review the application so what is covered will make sense to you. You can access the application here if you have not done so already.

Lynne will also bring her calendar to set appointments to discuss your grant ideas in advance of submitting your application.

Please let Lynne know if you have any questions or concerns.
