Mid-Winter Film Festival

Written by David on February, 10 2013

The Mid-Winter Film Festival at the Strand Theatre was a success. The theme was Hollywood Musicals. Our audience traveled through the decades starting in 1935 with TOP HAT; 1952 with SINGIN' IN THE RAIN; 1964 with VIVA LAS VEGAS; and finishing in 2007 with HAIRSPRAY.

The theatre was filled with song and dance. We look forward to hosting additional themed movie festivals.

Click on the image of Top Hat to see what a classic film looks like from that balcony at the Strand. That is Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers.
