Mike Gardner Comedy: March 9, 2013

Written by David on March, 10 2013

Mike Gardner performed at the Strand Theatre on March 9, 2013. He was joined by comedians Ryan Neimiller and Leo Flowers. Leo was in the area and joined the group at the last minute. He handled the MC duties and was funny! Ryan did the second set and had the audience laughing. He even told us that he had a Shelbyville connection in college at Indiana State. We felt it was best not to know the details.

Mike Gardner was at the Strand in time to take the stage as the headliner. He had several fans in the audience. Some of his jokes hurt with truth! He certainly kept everyone on their toes. Everyone had a great time.

This performance was a little unusual. The comics performed in the middle of the set of the Shelby County Players' production of "To Kill A Mockingbird." Leo started the evening talking about the book and other literary adventures. It was a perfect transition. As you can see from the pictures, the set was a great background for our comedy this month. Several in the audience said they would be returning to see the production!
