Strand Theatre Weekly Email: March 22, 2013

Written by David on March, 21 2013

The week is the final week of To Kill A Mocking Bird. This play is presented by the Shelby County Players. This is a wonderful production and is staged in conjunction with Shelby County Reads. Come to the Strand either Friday and Saturday at 7:30 pm or Sunday at 2:00 pm. This is your last chance to see this production. Come support live theatre in the heart of Shelby County!

During the opening weekend of To Kill A Mockingbird the cast had several things they had to deal with. An actor was ill, but still performed, and they also had a guest cast member (unexpected) fly into their play on Friday night. The actors never missed a beat. Come see our local talent in action. Thank you to Noell Krughoff and all the Shelby County Players for bringing this important production to our community.

As soon as the play is finished this weekend, the stage has to be cleared and ready for our next event....which is ALSO the Shelby County Players. They will be holding audition for their next production Plaza Suite. The auditions are Monday and Tuesday at 6:30 pm. If you have ever thought about performing on stage, come out and see what it is all about.

The week will continue with something we haven't done before. On Wednesday night, the Strand will host the premier of the new television show "Indy Car Starz." This car themed reality show was produced by Smashed Productions and stars Blake Steele, Jack Demartino and Billy Thurston. This is a FREE event and will start at 7:00 pm. Come out and see the premier of this new reality show. It will be a fun evening. There might be a surprise or two!

We will not be having a work session this Saturday due to the ongoing production on the Strand stage. We will check the weather and if it looks good we will try to hold a work session Saturday March 29th. The work we will be doing requires dry weather. We are anxious to continue on the renovation.

Thank you to all who visited us at the Shelby County Chamber of Commerce Trade Fair. This was our 7th year for exhibiting. It is hard to believe time has gone by so quickly. Each year we enjoy talking to old friends and making new friends. For the Trade Fair we produced a monthly event guide. These are available at the Strand. If we can get it done, we will have this guide each month. We will put them at select places around our community. The more people know what we have, the easier it is to do our mission.

This week the Strand received a thank you note from comedian Bob Zany. He thanked us for hosting him and our support. It is HIS support of the Strand that we thank. Performers like Bob who go a little bit off the beaten path to perform at the Strand, help us in building our programs, reputation and viability. Thank you Bob!

You will notice that other than Friday Night Frights we are dark next weekend. We have learned our lesson, we cannot compete against March Madness. Stay home and watch a few basketball games.

April will be a flurry of entertainment. The long list is below. It is because of you we can do so many great things at the Strand. Your support is appreciated and respected. Come see To Kill A Mockingbird this weekend. Hope to see you at the Strand!
