Volunteer Jobs

Written by David on April, 28 2013

Not just any volunteer gets the "glory" jobs. Volunteer Steve Frazee is lucky to get one of the more glamorous assignments during a recent Strand show!

This is what it takes to run a performing arts center. Everything is important, and while we post this in a somewhat "tongue in check" manner, the reality is that all things must be done. We have an organization that doesn't shy away from any job needing to be done.

Next time you are in the Strand, thank a volunteer. You might not know that they have done so that the performance can go on!
