Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra donates seats

Written by David on June, 20 2013

The Strand has a BIG announcement. It involves YOU too!

The Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra has given the Strand Theatre 400 seats from the Hilbert Circle Theatre. These seats are in excellent condition and are concert hall quality. This donation will allow the Strand to completely replace our current seats. The seats in the Strand balcony were installed in 1938. We did our best to get them all usable when we renovated the theatre. If you have sat in the balcony you know they need replaced.

When finished, all the seats in the Strand will match! Our plastic main floor seats will be replaced with the much higher quality seats from the ISO.

WE NEED YOUR HELP. The Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra has graciously allowed us to remove our seats. We will be able to completely label each seat. This will allow us to also treat them with care and not scratch paint or rip fabric. All this will happen this coming week. We will remove and transport the seats to Shelbyville on Wednesday June 26th and Thursday June 27th. We will start work at the Hilbert Circle Theatre at 6:30pm. The more that help, the easier it will be.

Please let us know if you can help. Send an email to:

david.finkel@StrandPAC.org or call 317-402-2521.

We need a minimum of 30 volunteers.

This is a wonderful gift. Please help us make it a reality. Join us and see the Hilbert Circle Theatre, it is beautiful. Hopefully you will attend a concert of the ISO!

Thank you to our community for making the Strand a vibrant performing arts venue. Thank you to the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra for supporting our mission. Hope to hear from you soon!
