Urgent Request for Volunteers TONIGHT (July 15th)

Written by David on July, 14 2013

Thank you to our loyal Strand volunteers for answering the call to duty. We have this once again tonight, Monday July 15, 2013!

Last week we were successful in removal of all the seats we are taking. We have been working on getting a truck and driver to bring the seats back to Shelbyville. Custom Courier is providing the truck! We have a volunteer with a CDL license to drive it. Now all we need (again) is you.

We are meeting at the Strand at 5:30pm on Monday. If you would like to meet us at the Hilbert Circle Theatre that will be at 6:30. We meet at the alley door. The job for Monday night is to move the chairs from the upper balcony to the lobby. Once in the lobby we will bag all the bottoms and backs. This will protect the seats until we are able to install them in the Strand.

Once bagged, we will load them into the truck. We have an additional trailer coming later in the evening in case we need more room. We will transport the seats back to Shelbyville to our warehouse. Once there, we will unload the seats onto pallets. We have done this the past two trips and the unload goes quickly.

If you can help, we need you tonight. The Indianapolis Symphony and their contractor have been very understanding in allowing us extra time to accomplish the job.

If you have any questions, please respond to this email or call 317-402-2521.

When you attend the Shelby County Players' performance of SUDS, you will see a two seat unit of our new seats! They look great in the Strand.

Thank you for all your support and help.
