BBRF Queen Pageant: August 10, 2013

Written by David on August, 11 2013

The Bears of Blue River Festival Queen Pageant returned to the Strand Theatre on August 10, 2013. The Bears of Blue River Festival has been an annual downtown Shelbyville event since 1980. The festival is named for the book "Bears of Blue River" by local author Charles Major considered the father of historical romance.

The book is about a boy, Balser Brent and his life in Shelby County. There is a statue in the Shelbyville Public Square depicting Balser Brent holding two bear cubs; Tom & Jerry,

The Strand is proud to be a part of the Festival and host their annual Queen Pageant.

This year's competition was keen, with outstanding candidates. The winner was Erica Marcum. Erica is no stranger to the Strand, as she has been a frequent performer and volunteer since she was a little girl. We congratulate Erica and all her fellow contestants. They are emblematic of the talent and dedication of our students.
