Friday Night Frights: September 20, 2013

Written by David on September, 19 2013

The Strand has a special presentation of Friday Night Frights for September. This month we are showing two Indiana produced films. Both films will be introduced by their directors!

Friday September 20, 2013 - 7:00pm

Strand Theatre - Shelbyville, Indiana

FOUND (2012) directed by Scott Schirmer

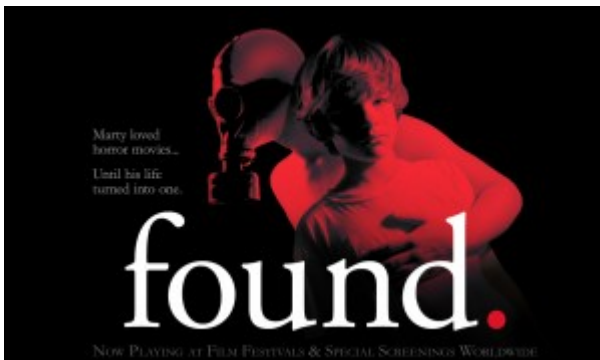

Marty loved horror movies? Until his life turned into one.

Marty is the ideal fifth grader. He gets good grades, listens to his teachers, and doesn't start trouble in class. But darkness is beginning to fall over Marty's life. The kids at school won't stop picking on him, his parents just don't seem to understand him, and now Marty must grapple with a terrible secret that threatens to destroy life as he knows it ? his big brother is a serial killer! Brotherly love is put to the ultimate test in this emotional coming-of-age story that descends into full-blown horror.

BEVERLY LANE (2010) directed by Joshua Hull

Beverly Lane follows a local metal company as they celebrate the retirement of their longtime boss with a "Coney Island" themed party. Bored & angry, the workers find themselves stuck with clowns, a magician, a mime, and one very sick barbershop singer. Then all hell breaks loose...literally! Stuck between zombies and a sideshow, the workers must learn to survive with each other or die trying.
