Strand Theatre Weekly Email: October 3, 2013

Written by David on October, 3 2013

This week the Strand welcomes the Shelby County Players for their production of Night Watch. This psychological drama will keep you guessing till the very last moment! Performances are Friday and Saturday night at 7:30, and Sunday at 2:00 pm.

The Players finish Sunday with their production of Night Watch only to return on Monday and Tuesday. The first part of next week they will be holding auditions for their next production "The Velveteen Rabbit". This is directed by Mary Carter. Auditions start at 6:30.

The Strand's schedule is full with a variety of events. October means Poetry. Since we re-opened Three Sisters Books and Gifts has hosted Poetry Night at the Strand. This is every April and October. This month will bring many local poets to share their amazing and moving works. If you haven't been to a poetry reading, please join us for this FREE event on Wednesday October 9th. We will start at 7:00pm. This is also the ideal time to visit the First United Methodist Church's annual Turkey Dinner. It is on Wednesday too and goes until 7:00, so you can do both!

Saturday October 12th the Strand will welcome back The Big Poppy Band. This group includes Willandra Macklin, Todd Simpson, Zack Brown, Dean McNamara, and Mark Savage. They will play early Rock and Roll music with a few surprises. The concert will help support the Shelby County Animal Shelter. The evening will start with well known performer Dana Ayers in his debut Strand performance. Tickets are available at Mickey's T-Mart and at the door. This will be an outstanding concert and we hope to see you there.

Did you notice the marquee for The Big Poppy. There are several letter "Y" used. Unfortunately Dana Ayers was Dana A_yers on the marquee. We ran out of "Y". Bob Schlick saw this and magically a new "Y" appeared. This is how the Strand works...we love it!

The Shelby County Players for the first time were able to use as many stage lights as they wanted. There was plenty of power! It is nice to have that problem behind us. We still have several things to do, but it is nice to be at this point now.

Thank you for all your support. The Strand is proud to be a part of our community. Each and every week we have nice things done on our behalf. All this generosity is manifested in the good things that the Strand represents. Thank you for making this possible.

We will see you at the Strand!
