Strand Weekly Email 9/16/2016

Written by David on September, 16 2016

Dear Strand Fan,

We have had a fun week. Retro Bill made a return appearance, and we hosted a private movie premier. The movie is Nessie and Me and will be available at Wal-Mart nationwide the end of October!

We published a flyer with our September-October events. It almost didn't fit the page! We added one event, which you will see reflected at the side of this email. The JAG program at Shelbyville High School will hold their induction ceremony at the Strand on October 11th. That will be a busy week for us. Sunday will be the Shelby Community Band concert, Tuesday will be JAG, Wednesday is poetry, Thursday is Bold Women in Indiana lecture, Friday we have the Shelby County Arts Fest choir concert, and Saturday we finish with Elements of Jazz concert. If you considered volunteering, the week of October 9-15 would be a good time to start!

Next weekend will be an evening of one act plays presented by the Shelby County Players. This event is free! You can get tickets from the Shelby County Players. We look forward to some great performances.

October 1st Kit Haymond will perform with his band PRESSED IN BLACK. They will be joined by the group NOW AND THEN. Now and Then describes themselves as a progressive pop-punk band. They began playing shows in March and have been striving to make a lot of music ever since. Known for their energetic stage presence and catchy songwriting, Now and Then is starting to gain a lot of momentum in Indiana's music scene. We are happy to have them perform at the Strand.

We will be holding a work session in the near future. We have several projects. First will be the moving of our theater pipe organs into the shop space! This is a short move of about 200 feet, but it still needs to get done. We also have several odd jobs around the Strand that will take many hands. Included in that list is spending time gazing over the downtown from our roof with Bob S. (maybe spreading a little roof seal too).

We are having a blast. We welcomed two new volunteers this week, we always love that! As the Shelby County Players prepare for their production we plan to do some jobs that have been on the back burner.

We do this all because of your support. Thank you! See you at the Strand.
