Strand Theatre Weekly Email ? 7/28/2017

Written by David on July, 28 2017

Dear Strand Fan,

This week our email is pretty simple:

TONIGHT - FRIDAY NIGHT FIGHTS

DEMENTIA 13 - 7:30pm

Friday Night Frights is our series that ?takes us back? to what many remember of the Strand. Late Nite ?B? movies. (Editor?s note: Before we hear comments, yes it was NITE, not NIGHT. Anyone who has ever changed a marquee knows why!) When we first started FNF the films started at 11:00pm. We just can?t do that anymore, so 7:30pm will have to work. We have shown some interesting films from the past as well as new films. While we are a performing arts center, we remember our past. Friday Night Frights is a homage to those days gone by.

The Strand is for many performers first time on a stage outside of school. We love giving that opportunity to those just starting. Tonight?s film is much the same. It is Francis Ford Coppola's directorial debut. Everyone has to start somewhere.

SATURDAY - THE KING, KILLER, AND THE MAN IN BLACK

7:30pm - TICKETS AVAILABLE

The Strand will be filled with rock and roll Saturday night as we welcome Brad McCrady?s THE KING, KILLER, AND THE MAN IN BLACK. We will hear music of Elvis, Jerry Lee Lewis, and Johnny Cash. Patrons are traveling from near and far to hear this outstanding concert. We hope you can make it too. Tickets are still available. Advanced tickets will be at Mickey?s T-Mart until 4:00pm on Saturday.

This week we held our monthly COMMUNITY TREASURE SERIES. Thank you to Brandy Coomes presenting on behalf of Mainstreet Shelbyville. We learned about all the great things Mainstreet has accomplished. She also talked about their new building on North Harrison Street. It will be a jewel in the downtown. We appreciate Mainstreet as a partner and as a presenter for our lecture series.

Short and sweet as promised. Lots of fun things happen and it is all because of you, Thank You! See you at the Strand!
